The Examiner has further included that the application based upon the facsimile submitted has been amended as follows:

In The Claims:

At claim 12, line 1, delete—"the"—; replace with—"a"—.

At claim 12, line 2, delete—"using a microprocessor, comprising the step of:"—; replace with—"using a microprocessor to perform the steps of:"—.

2. The following changes to the drawings have been approved by the examiner and agreed upon by applicant: at page 7 of the applicant's faxed amendment to the instant application, applicant has also provided a replacement sheet (see attached) that formally identifies numeral 1 at Figure 6 and Figure 7. By way of the facsimile, applicant has made these above agreed upon drawing changes.

3. This Notice of Allowability/Examiner's Amendment is responsive to applicant remarks/arguments received on 29 December 2008. Claims 1-11, 13 and 14 are canceled. Claims 12, 15-22 are currently amended or previously presented and are pending in the application.

4. Applicant's argument, see pages 6-11 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejections of Claims 12, 15-22 have been withdrawn.

5. Positive Statement: Applicant has amended Claim 12, (newly renumbered as Claim 1) to recite "a method of determining a living character of a finger of a person carrying a fingerprint using a microprocessor to perform the steps of:..." to overcome 35 U.S.C. 101 rejections in view of In re Bilski. The recitation of using a microprocessor to perform the steps of the method of Claim 12 now adequately ties the "process" to another statutory category. It is clear to a person of ordinary skill in the art of personal identification using biometrics such as fingerprints that determining a living character of a finger by making measurements of impedance must be performed by a microprocessor or the like.

6. Claims 12, 15-22 distinguish over the prior art. Claims 12, 15-22 are allowable. These claims will be renumbered as 1-9.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
